4. (Confidential - LLM) Mr. Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called on the galley we recently returned to him covering the testimony of [REDACTED] and said they still needed an answer to the question to [REDACTED] on evidence of U.S. nationals being trained in [REDACTED] He said they would go back to [REDACTED] directly on this if the Agency prefers. Sourwine said he assumed that the Agency has no objection to the publication of the transcript in its present form once the missing answer is supplied. I told him we would be back in touch.
